

ABD-EL KRIM ORDERS SUITS.

Ex-Riffian Chief Sends to Paris for Modern Clothes.

FEZ, June 22 (AP).—Abd-el Krim, the former Riffian Ward Lord, who recently surrendered to the French in Morocco, has decided henceforth to dress in modern style. It is understood he has ordered suits of clothes from Paris tailors and also has placed a rush order with a Casablanca tailor for Summer flannels for himself and his two young sons. The flannels are to be of the latest European cut.

The modernization of Abd-el Krim's brother, Sid Mohammed, has gone only as far as literature. He is reading works of Corneille and Victor Hugo, to escape the boredom of detention.
